

Terra & Szilvia's Drama Camp

Grades K-6th

August 5 – 9, 2019
Walden School

9:00 AM – 3:00 PM
(extended day available)

Join us for all day dramatic play! Drama Camp is intended to provide a fun and safe place to explore, experiment, and play with different aspects of acting and performance. We will be playing lots of improvisation games, using music and scripts, learning about costumes, make-up, and set design, and even performing on the last day!

All students who are willing to come and play are welcome, no previous experience necessary. Those with more experience will take on more responsibility, and those who are just beginning will be guided and encouraged. We will create a safe space for creativity and risk-taking! The class will be personalized for the attending students.

Students will have the opportunity to work on group and/or partner scenes, monologues, creative movement, storytelling, and other aspects of performance, even Shakespeare, if that's where their interests are.

On the first day we'll start to get a sense of what the students are up for, and we'll start to put together a showcase of our work for end of the last class session.

Both Terra and Szilvia have extensive backgrounds in the performing arts, including acting, singing, teaching, directing, stage managing, and producing. They are both thrilled about the opportunity to work together in this capacity!

This camp supports and aligns with Walden's Mission Statement perfectly! Through this work we are nurturing wonder, while encouraging dignity and respect, for self, for materials, and for others. With the instructors' extensive experience working with children paired with their familiarity with Walden's program, students will be developmentally appropriately expected to take initiative and follow through on responsibilities. Using this experience along with role-playing and their backgrounds in psycho drama, they are also well-equipped to handle any conflict-resolution issues. Classes will be taught through varied modalities and will be very active. This camp is a place where children with all talents, skills, and interests around performance are encouraged to express themselves and work together toward a performance showcase.

Drama Camp Cost: $395 (Please note: This is a 5-day camp. Steady attendance is important for all performers in order to create and prepare a performance.)
